Variety 2/13/92

Five Rs include Triumph's 'Ruby'

Triumph's Jack Ruby biopic "Ruby" received an R rating for language from the Motion Picture Assn. of America's Classification & Rating Administration in its 1,204th bulletin.

The seven titles rated include four others with Rs and one each with a PG and a PG-13.

PG

"Spotswood" (Miramax).

PG-13

"Folks" (Pentamerica).

R

"Edward II" (Fine Line; for "strong violence and sensuality, and for some language").

"Fear of Scandal" (Spectradyne; for "strong sensuality, and for language and violence").

"Night on Earth" (Fine Line; for "language, and for sensuality").

"Ruby" (Triumph; for language).

"Sometimes They Come Back" (Vidmark; for "terror violence").